

4 FAH-1 H-300 ALLOTMENT AUTHORITY, AND ALLOTMENT AND OPERATING ALLOWANCE CODES

4 FAH-1 H-310 ALLOTMENT AUTHORITY, AND ALLOTMENT AND OPERATING ALLOWANCE CODES

(TL:FMH-25; 01-30-2003)
(Office of Origin: RM/GFS/FMS/FPMC)

4 FAH-1 H-311 PURPOSE

(TL:FMH-1; 04-15-1994)

a. Uniform codes are prescribed for:

- (1) Allotment authorities;
- (2) Allotments and operating allowances to facilitate the processing and accounting for funds authorized;
- (3) Obligations and expenditures; and
- (4) Balances under each of the categories.

See 4 FAM 200 for allotment accounting procedures and policy.

b. Allotment authority codes in the 4X00 and 5X00 for regional bureaus, 4 FAH-1 H-316, and 60XX series for other offices, 4 FAH-1 H-317, are required for processing, controlling, and reporting financial resources made available to financial coordinators and/or managers. These allotment authority codes must be recorded in the allotment authority documents issued to financial coordinators and from copies of these documents into the automated financial management system.

4 FAH-1 H-312 STRUCTURE OF CODES

(TL:FMH-1; 04-15-1994)

a. The allotment codes are arranged into four broad groups as follows for all appropriations and funds:

- (1) Domestic Expense 10XX;
- (2) Expenses Abroad Washington-held—20XX;
- (3) Expenses Abroad Posts; functional and regional bureaus—0XXX, 1XXX, 2XXX, 3XXX, 4XXX, 5XXX, 6XXX; and
- (4) Worldwide Expense Allotment authorities and Washington-held—60XX

b. Memorandum accounts and special accounting/reporting codes are used in the allotment code field of certain accounting records and reports as shown in 4 FAH-1 H-320. Operating allowances authorized by certain allottees are also identified by four-digit codes.

1st digit Current Year and “X” Appropriations Only: Identifies whether (1) domestic; (2) Washington-held abroad; (0), (1), (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) posts abroad; and (7), (8) and (9) memorandum accounts and special accounting and/or reporting codes.

Expired and Lapsed Appropriations: Same as above except that 4XXX and 5XXX allotments in the expired S&E appropriations are merged into 4XXX, except as otherwise specified for special allotments.

2nd digit Where other than a zero, identifies the regional area involved.

3rd and 4th digits Program, office, or country identification

4 FAH-1 H-313 DOMESTIC EXPENSE (10XX SERIES)

(TL:FMH-20; 12-17-2001)

Allotments made to bureaus and offices for domestic expense and all appropriations and funds will be identified by the four-digit allotment codes prescribed in this series. These include miscellaneous salaries, temporary

4 FAH-1 H-314 WASHINGTON-HELD EXPENSES ABROAD (20XX SERIES)

(TL:FMH-23; 10-18-2002)

Allotments made to bureaus and offices, other than regional bureaus, for expenses abroad, which will be obligated in Washington, are identified by the four-digit allotment codes prescribed in this series. Exception has been made in the case of the regional bureaus because of the need to identify “program” and “International Cooperative Administration Support Services (ICASS)” expenses separately for S&E and to permit summarization of post and Washington-held funds available, obligations, and expenditures under S&E against a single allotment authority issued to each regional bureau.

4 FAH-1 H-315 EXPENSES ABROAD, POSTS (0XXX, 1XXX AND 3XXX SERIES)

(TL:FMH-25; 01-30-2003)

a. Allotments made to posts by bureaus and offices are identified by these code series for all appropriations and funds involved, except those issued by the regional bureaus which are identified in the 4XXX and 5XXX series, and those issued by the Office of Foreign Buildings (OBO) in the 2XXX and 6XXX series commencing October 1, 1990.

b. The codes are completed by incorporating the geographic area and country codes as the second, third, and fourth digits. See Post Funding Codes Abroad in 4 FAH-1 H-430.

c. The following special allotments have been established, in addition to those post allotments within the coding structure defined above, in order to provide different allotment codes when more than one allotment for the appropriations and bureaus are required at the same location.

ALLOTMENTS (4XXX AND 5XXX SERIES)

(TL:FMH-19; 06-04-2000)

U.S. Department of State Foreign Affairs Handbook Volume 4 Handbook 1—Financial Management

a. The post allotment codes are completed by assigning identifying country codes. See Post Funding Codes Abroad in 4 FAH-1 H-400.

b. The regional bureau S&E allotment authorities are for allotments for posts' administrative expenses, either State direct or International Cooperative Administrative Support Services (ICASS), such as personal service costs for both Foreign Service Nationals and U.S. employees (except base pay, post differential, and charge pay for U.S. citizens abroad), allowances for U.S. employees, official residence costs, and all "other object" costs. Included as "other object" costs are maintenance, repairs, and replacement of furniture, furnishings, and equipment and building operating expenses.

c. Funds are also allotted for expenses abroad principally obligated in Washington, such as regional travel, Marine Security Guard clothing and purchase of security equipment. These allotments are not used for hospitalization expenses (6025), reimbursable details (6034), or other items of expense chargeable to allotments in 4 FAH-1 H-314 and 4 FAH-1 H-315. In addition to allotments of S&E funds, allotments of other funds are made to posts by regional bureaus in the 4XXX series. The bureaus allot funds for representation allowances under Appropriation 19_0545. ICASS will be allotted funds for administrative support services abroad under appropriation 19X4519.1.
